The Copenhagen Common Session Conference will take place at the Faculty of Law, the University of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Faculty of Law
University of Copenhagen
South Campus
Njalsgade 76
2300 Copenhagen S
Denmark

The Conference will take place in Alf Ross Lecture Hall, (9A-3-01) (third floor), and Seminar Room 8B-3-03 just next to Alf Ross.

The Staff Meeting takes place in Justitia, room 7A-2-04 (second floor).

How to get to the Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen

Here is an overview of how to get to the Faculty of Law for the Copenhagen Common Session Conference.

As your central point of destination for the Faculty of Law's address at South Campus, we recommend:

Njalsgade 76
2300 Copenhagen S

Coming from the airport

Photographer: Morten Bjarnhof

When you arrive in Copenhagen Airport, you may use the Metro from the airport to the Faculty of Law. The journey from Copenhagen Airport to the Faculty of Law takes approximately 25 minutes.

Journey Planner - travel information from airport to South Campus

The Metro service runs from the far end of the arrival hall in terminal 3 to Christianshavn Station, where you have to change Metro line to go to Islands Brygge Metro Station. The Faculty is located 150 metres from Islands Brygge Metro Station.

Remember to buy your ticket (3 zones) at the airport. You may use any credit card. All public transport in Copenhagen runs on the same ticket system, i.e. your ticket is valid for buses, Metro, S-train, airport trains and all other trains normally for 1 hour.

If you prefer to take a taxi to the Faculty (about 14 km /24 Euro), you can pay with almost any credit card in any taxi in Copenhagen.

The Faculty of Law is located at Njalsgade 76. See the location on this map <https://findvej.ku.dk/english/>

The main entrance is behind the parking lot through the revolving door.

Travel by car

Find your way in Copenhagen by car by using the Google Maps route planner.

Simply enter your point of departure to receive a detailed location plan. If you do not want to get to the main building, please change the destination.

There are various parking facilities surrounding the University:

- Area A by Islands Brygge Metro Station and Ørestads Boulevard (close to the Faculty of Law)
- Area C between building 25 and 27
- Area D between building 25 and Mikado House

See the areas on a map here.

Guest Parking Cards are distributed locally at the information desk in the Legal Knowledge Centre. Be aware that a missing Parking Card can impose a fine. There is a limited number of parking spaces at the South Campus.

An issued Parking Card does not equal a parking spot for your car. Most of the parking spaces are usually occupied after 9 AM.

Travel by public transport

Simply enter your point of departure to see your connection to the Faculty of Law. From Islands Brygge Metro Station it takes approximately 3 minutes by foot to get to the South Campus.

Use Journey Planner to locate public transportation. Simply enter your point of departure and set the destination at Njalsgade 76, 2300 Copenhagen S, the location of the Faculty of Law. From Islands Brygge Metro Station it takes approximately 3 minutes by foot to get to the Faculty.

The main entrance is behind the parking lot through the revolving door.

Travel by bike

Find your way in Copenhagen by bike by using the Google Maps route planner.

Simply enter your point of departure and off you go on the bike paths of Copenhagen. If you do not already have a bicycle try the Bicykel, Copenhagen's own rental bikes. They are located in various places all over the city. The bicycles closest to the South Campus are located at Islands Brygge Metro Station, otherwise find the ones closest to you here.

The Bicykel is fitted with a navigation system, which you can open from the bike's main menu. Here you can see your current position, and search on points of interests, and scenery all over Copenhagen.
